legislative authority and power connected therewith.

[Passed March 22, 1904.]
Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Nevada shall be and is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislative authority of the State shall be vested in the Senate and an Assembly, which shall be designated as the "Legislature of the State of Nevada," and the sessions of such Legislature shall be held at the seat of government of the State. The people, however, reserve to themselves powers to propose laws and amendments to the Constitution, and to enact or reject the same at the polls, independent of the Legislature, and also reserve power at their own option to approve or reject any measure by such petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed.

Initiative petitions shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than four months before the election at which they are to be voted upon. The second power is the referendum, and it may be ordered (except as to laws necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety) either by petition, signed by seven (7) per cent of the legal voters, or by the Legislative Assembly, as other bills are enacted.
